OJIBWA HYMNS.

PUBLISHED BY THE
AMERICAN TRACT SOCIETY,
150 NASSAU-STREET, NEW YORK.

P R E F A C E .

THE design of this little volume of hymns, in Indian and English, is to meet the present urgent wants of the north-western Ojibwas. The hymns are selected from the hymn-book of the Rev. Sherman Hall, as compiled from the books of the Rev. Peter Jones and the Rev. James Evans and George Henry. The book of Mr. Evans was published by the American Tract Society, New York, in 1837; that of the Rev. Peter Jones was a new edition of the former work, in which a number of the old hymns were omitted and several new ones added. It was printed also in an improved orthography, with the corresponding English hymns on opposite pages. It was published at Toronto in 1840. The book of the Rev. Mr. Hall was published by the American Board for Foreign Missions in Boston, in 1844. This was printed only in Indian, the French vowel sounds being used in the orthography. These different editions are now all exhausted. Hence the necessity of the present volume, in issuing which it was thought desirable to have the hymns written in a new orthography, upon the basis of the English vowel and consonant sounds, and also to have the English hymns printed on the opposite page. Readers of the former books will notice some changes here in the plan of syllabification. The attempt has been made in this book to form the syllables more in accordance with the grammatical principles of the language. Some changes, also deemed important, have been made in a few of the hymns. It is the design of the compiler, should life and health be preserved, to prepare for the press a much larger work than this as soon as the materials can be obtained and be properly fitted for the press. In the mean time, the hymns now published may supply the wants of the people for whom they are designed.

ORTHOGRAPHY
OF THE OJIBWA LANGUAGE.

ALPHABET.

A B D E G H I J
K M N O P S
T U W Y Z

VOWEL SOUNDS.

a long, as a in fate. o long, as o in note.
ä Italian, as a in far. ö close, as o in move.
a broad, as a in fall. ǒ short, as o in moss,
e long, as e in me. boss.

ī long, as i in pie. u short, as u in but,
i short, as i in pin. gun.

DIPHTHONGS.

ou, as ou in out. eu, as eu in neuter.

CONSONANTS.

b as in be, rib.	s as in so, us.
d as in do, did.	t as in top, bit.
g as in go, big.	w as in water.
h as in how.	y as in you, young.
j as in jib, ajar.	z as in zone.
k as in kite.	ch as in church.
m as in me, him.	sh as in show, sash.
n as in no, in.	zh as heard in azure.
p as in pea, dip.	Ah, yes.

SOUNDS PECULIAR.

ng, preceded by a vowel when it ends a word, is followed by a slight whisper sound of short u, as is heard after the words mug, jug. Example : ä-king, no-pe-ming.

ns, preceded by a vowel, has a nasal sound, difficult to represent in English. In pronouncing it, the n sound is but slightly heard. It is generally used in words of a diminutive signification, as ä-kik, a kettle ; ä-kik-ons, a little kettle.

The syllables mostly used are ons, ens, ans, pronounced as if written in English with ce instead of s, as once, ence, ance.

The consonants are the same as in English, except that c, f, l, q, r, v, and x, are not used, and g is always hard, as g in go. To avoid encumbering the page of a book written in Ojibwa with useless letters and marks, all double letters are discarded. In marking the vowels, care has been taken to distinguish by a mark those sounds which occur most infrequently. Thus in the two sounds of i, the short prevails over the long sound as twenty to one; consequently, the long sound is marked. In the three sounds of o, the reverse is true. The long sound of o in note prevails over the other two sounds as twenty or thirty to one, and so the long sound is not marked.

OJIBWA HYMNS.

HYMN 1. C. M.

1. COME, Holy Ghost, our hearts inspire,
Let us thine influence prove;
Source of the old prophetic fire,
Fountain of life and love.
2. Come, Holy Ghost, for moved by thee,
The prophets wrote and spoke;
Unlock the truth, thyself the key,
Unseal the sacred book.
3. Expand thy wings, celestial Dove,
Brood o'er our nature's night;
On our disordered spirits move,
And let there now be light.
4. God, through himself, we then shall know
If thou within us shine;
And sound, with all thy saints below,
The depths of love divine.

HYMN 2. C. M.

1. Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With all thy quick'ning powers ;
Kindle a flame of sacred love
In these cold hearts of ours.
2. Look how we grovel here below,
Fond of these earthly toys ;
Our souls, how heavily they go
To reach eternal joys !
3. In vain we tune our formal songs,
In vain we strive to rise ;
Hosannas languish on our tongues,
And our devotion dies.
4. Father, and shall we ever live
At this poor dying rate ?
Our love so faint, so cold to thee,
And thine to us so great ?
5. Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With all thy quick'ning powers ;
Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,
And that shall kindle ours.

HYMN 3. S. M.

1. The praying spirit breathe,
The watching power impart ;
From all entanglements beneath
Call off my peaceful heart ;
My feeble mind sustain,
By worldly thoughts oppress ;
Appear, and bid me turn again
To my eternal rest.
 2. Swift to my rescue come,
Thine own this moment seize,
Gather my wand'ring spirit home,
And keep in perfect peace :
Suffered no more to rove,
O'er all the earth abroad,
Arrest the prisoner of thy love,
And shut me up in God.

HYMN 4. S. M.

1. O come, and dwell in me,
Spirit of power within,
And bring the glorious liberty
From sorrow, fear, and sin.

 3. Hasten the joyful day
Which shall my sins consume;
When old things shall be done away
And all things new become.
 4. I want the witness, Lord,
That all I do is right,
According to thy will and word,
Well pleasing in thy sight.
 5. I ask no higher state;
Indulge me but in this;
And soon or later then translate
To my eternal bliss.

HYMN 5. L. M.

1. Return, my soul, enjoy thy rest,
Improve the day thy God has blest;
Another six days' work is done,
Another Sabbath is begun.

2. Come, bless the Lord, whose love assigns
So sweet a rest to wearied minds—
Provides a blest foretaste of heaven
On this day more than all the seven.
3. O that our thoughts and thanks may rise
As grateful incense to the skies,
And draw from Christ that sweet repose
Which none but he that feels it knows.
4. This heavenly calm within the breast
Is the blest pledge of glorious rest,
Which for the church of God remains,
The end of cares, the end of pains.
5. With joy, great God, thy works we scan,
Creation's scene, redemption's plan;
With praise we think on mercies past,
With hope we future pleasures taste.

2. Mä-mo-yu-wum, Ta-ba-nin-gat,

HYMN 6. C. M.

1. The Lord of Sabbath let us praise,
In concert with the blest,
Who, joyful in harmonious lays,
Employ an endless rest.
2. Thus, Lord, while we remember thee,
We blest and pious grow;
By hymns of praise we learn to be
Triumphant here below.
3. On this glad day a brighter scene
Of glory was displayed
By God, th' eternal Word, than when
This universe was made.
4. He rises, who mankind has bought
With grief and pain extreme;
'T was great to speak the world from naught,
'T was greater to redeem.
5. Alone the dreadful race he ran,
Alone the wine-press trod;
He dies and suffers as a man,
He rises as a God.

HYMN 7. S. M.

1. Welcome, sweet day of rest,
That saw the Lord arise;
Welcome to this reviving breast,
And these rejoicing eyes.
2. Jesus himself comes near,
And feasts his saints to-day;
Here we may sit, and see him here,
And love and praise and pray.
3. One day amid the place
Where God my Saviour's been,
Is sweeter than ten thousand days
Of pleasure and of sin.
4. My willing soul would stay
In such a frame as this,
Till called to rise and soar away
To everlasting bliss.

HYMN 8. C. M.

1. Father of all, in whom alone
We live and move and breathe,
One bright celestial ray dart down,
And cheer thy sons beneath.
 2. While in thy word we search for thee—
We search with trembling awe—
Open our eyes, and let us see
The wonders of thy law.
 3. Now let our darkness comprehend
The light that shines so clear;
Now the revealing Spirit send,
And give us ears to hear.
 4. Before us make thy goodness pass,
Which here by faith we know;
Let us in Jesus see thy face,
And die to all below.

HYMN 9. L. M.

1. Sweet is the work, my God, my King,
To praise thy name, give thanks, and sing,
To show thy love by morning light,
And talk of all thy truth at night.

No mortal care shall seize my breast ;
O may my heart in tune be found,
Like David's harp of solemn sound.
 3. Sure I shall share a glorious part,
When grace hath well refined my heart,
And fresh supplies of joy are shed,
Like holy oil, to cheer my head.
 4. Then shall I see and hear and know
All I desired or wished below,
And every power find sweet employ
In that eternal world of joy.

That bids our sorrows cease;
'Tis music in the sinner's ears,
'Tis life and health and peace.
 4. He breaks the power of cancelled sin,
He sets the prisoner free;
His blood can make the foulest clean;
His blood availed for me.
 5. He speaks; and list'ning to his voice,
New life the dead receive;
The mournful, broken hearts rejoice,
The humble poor believe.
 6. Hear him, ye deaf; his praise, ye dumb,
Your loosened tongues employ;
Ye blind, behold your Saviour come,
And leap, ye lame, for joy.

HYMN 11. L. M.

Let every soul be Jesus' guest:
Ye need not one be left behind,
For God hath bidden all mankind.

The invitation is to all :
Come, all the world ; come, sinner, thou ;
All things in Christ are ready now.
3. Come, all ye souls by sin oppressed,
Ye restless wand'ers after rest ;
Ye poor and maimed and halt and blind,
In Christ a hearty welcome find.
4. My message as from God receive ;
Ye all may come to Christ and live :
O let his love your hearts constrain,
Nor suffer him to die in vain.
5. See him set forth before your eyes,
That precious, bleeding sacrifice :
His offered benefits embrace,
And freely now be saved by grace.
6. This is the time, no more delay,
This is the acceptable day ;
Come in this moment at his call,
And live for Him who died for all.

HYMN 12. 8, 7, 4.

1. Come, ye sinners, poor and needy,
Weak and wounded, sick and sore,
Jesus ready stands to save you,
Full of pity, love, and power:
He is able,
He is willing; doubt no more.
2. Now, ye needy, come and welcome,
God's free bounty glorify;
True belief and true repentance—
Every grace that brings you nigh—
Without money,
Come to Jesus Christ and buy.
3. Let not conscience make you linger,
Nor of fitness fondly dream;
All the fitness he requireth
Is to feel your need of him:
This he gives you—
'Tis the Spirit's glim'ring beam.
4. Come, ye weary, heavy-laden,
Bruised and mangled by the fall;
If you tarry till you're better,
You will never come at all:
Not the righteous—
Sinners Jesus came to call.

NUGUMOWIN 12. 8, 7, 4.

5. Agonizing in the garden,
Lo, your Maker prostrate lies;
On the bloody tree behold him;
Hear him cry before he dies,
It is finished!
Sinners, will not this suffice?
6. Lo, th' incarnate God, ascending,
Pleads the merit of his blood:
Venture on him, venture freely,
Let no other trust intrude:
None but Jesus
Can do helpless sinners good.

HYMN 13. H. M.

1. Blow ye the trumpet, blow
The gladly-solemn sound;
Let all the nations know,
To earth's remotest bound,
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

My soul from endless death!
3. O Jesus, could I this believe,
I now should feel thy power;
Now all my wants thou would'st relieve
In this, th' accepted hour.
4. Author of faith, to thee I lift
My weary, longing eyes:
O let me now receive that gift—
My soul without it dies.
5. Surely thou canst not let me die;
O speak, and I shall live;
For here I will unwearied lie
Till thou thy Spirit give.
6. The worst of sinners would rejoice,
Could they but see that face;
O let me hear thy quick'ning voice,
And taste thy pard'ning grace.

HYMN 15. 8s, 7s.

1. Come, thou Fount of every blessing,
Tune my heart to sing thy grace :
Streams of mercy never ceasing,
Call for songs of loudest praise :
Teach me some melodious sonnet,
Sung by flaming tongues above ;
Praise the mount—I'm fixed upon it—
Mount of thy redeeming love.
2. Here I'll raise mine Ebenezer,
Hither by thy help I'm come ;
And I hope, by thy good pleasure,
Safely to arrive at home.
Jesus sought me when a stranger,
Wand'ring from the fold of God ;
He, to rescue me from danger,
Interposed his precious blood.
3. Oh, to grace how great a debtor
Daily I'm constrained to be ;
Let thy goodness, like a fetter,
Bind my wand'ring heart to thee :
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it,
Prone to leave the God I love—
Here's my heart, O take and seal it,
Seal it for thy courts above.

HYMN 16. S. M.

1. My God, my life, my love,
To thee, to thee I call :

For thou art all in all.
2. Thy shining grace can cheer

And nowhere else but there.
4. To thee, and thee alone,

2. Called from above, I rise,

2. When to the right or left we stray,
Leave us not comfortless;
But guide our feet into the way

3. Help us to help each other, Lord,

1. Alas, and did my Saviour bleed?
And did my Sovereign die?
Would he devote that sacred head
For such a worm as I?
2. Was it for crimes that I have done,
He groaned upon the tree?
Amazing pity! grace unknown!
And love beyond degree!
3. Well might the sun in darkness hide,
And shut his glories in,
When Christ the mighty Maker died
For man the creature's sin.
4. Thus might I hide my blushing face
While his dear cross appears;
Dissolve my heart in thankfulness,
And melt mine eyes to tears.
5. But drops of grief can ne'er repay
The debt of love I owe:
Here, Lord, I give myself away,
'Tis all that I can do.

HYMN 27. L. M.

1. Of him who did salvation bring
I could for ever think and sing;
Arise, ye needy; he'll relieve;
Arise, ye guilty; he'll forgive.
2. Ask but his grace, and lo, 't is given;
Ask, and he turns your hell to heaven:
Though sin and sorrow wound my soul,
Jesus, thy balm will make it whole.
3. To shame our sins he blushed in blood,
He closed his eyes to show us God;
Let all the world fall down and know
That none but God such love can show.
4. 'T is thee I love, for thee alone
I shed my tears and make my moan;
Where'er I am, where'er I move,
I meet the object of my love.
5. Insatiate to this spring I fly;
I drink, and yet am ever dry;
Ah, who against thy charms is proof?
Ah, who that loves can love enough?

HYMN 28. - C. M.

1. Behold the Saviour of mankind
 Nailed to the shameful tree!
How vast the love that him inclined
 To bleed and die for me.
2. Hark! how he groans, while nature shakes,
 And earth's strong pillars bend;
The temple's veil asunder breaks,
 The solid marbles rend.
3. 'T is finished! now the ransom's paid,
 "Receive my soul," he cries:
See how he bows his sacred head!
 He bows his head and dies.
4. But soon he'll break death's iron chain,
 And in full glory shine;
O Lamb of God, was ever pain,
 Was ever love like thine?

HYMN 29. S. M.

1. O that I could repent,
 With all my idols part;
And to thy gracious eye present
 A humble, contrite heart:

And melt my hardness down :
Strike with thy love's resistless stroke,
And break this heart of stone.

HYMN 30. C. M.

1. God is in this and every place,
But Oh, how dark and void ;
To me 't is one great wilderness,
This earth without my God.

Till he his glorious self reveals,

And bid me, at the point to die,
Behold thy face and live.
 5. Now, Jesus, now the Father's love
Shed in my heart abroad ;
The middle wall of sin remove,
And let me into God.

HYMN 31. C. M.

1. How sad our state by nature is ;
Our sin, how deep it stains !
And Satan binds our captive souls
Fast in his slavish chains.
2. But there 's a voice of sovereign grace
Sounds from the sacred word :
Ho ! ye despairing sinners, come,
And trust a faithful Lord.

From crimes of deepest dye.
 5. A guilty, weak, and helpless worm,

HYMN 32. S. M.

1. Let all who truly bear
The bleeding Saviour's name,
Their faithful hearts with us prepare,
And eat the Paschal Lamb:
2. This eucharistic feast

And still we by his death are blest,

Shall lift us to the skies.

HYMN 33. C. M.

1. Jesus, at whose supreme command,
We now approach to God,
Before us in thy vesture stand,
Thy vesture dipped in blood.
2. Now, Saviour, now thyself reveal,
And make thy nature known;
Affix thy blessed Spirit's seal,
And stamp us for thine own.
3. The tokens of thy dying love,

And sensibly believe.

 5. The living bread sent down from heaven,
In us vouchsafe to be;
Thy flesh for all the world is given,
And all may live by thee.

HYMN 34. 7s.

1. Come, and let us sweetly join;
Christ to praise in hymns divine;
Give we all with one accord,
Glory to our common Lord;
2. Hands and hearts and voices raise:
Sing as in the ancient days;
Antedate the joys above,
Celebrate the feast of love.
3. Strive we, in affection strive:
Let the purer flame revive;
Such as in the martyrs glowed,
Dying champions for their God.

4. We like them may live and love;
Called we are their joys to prove;
Saved with them from future wrath;
Partners of like precious faith.
 5. Sing we then in Jesus' name,
Now as yesterday the same;
One in every time and place,
Full for all of truth and grace:
 6. We for Christ our Master stand,
Lights in a benighted land:
We our dying Lord confess,
We are Jesus' witnesses.

HYMN 35. L. M.

1. The morning flowers display their sweets,
And gay their silken leaves unfold,
As careless of the noontide heats,
As fearless of the evening cold.
2. Nipt by the wind's untimely blast,
Parched by the sun's directer ray,
The momentary glories waste,
The short-lived beauties die away.

3. So blooms the human face divine,
When youth its pride of beauty shows:
Fairer than spring the colors shine,
And sweeter than the virgin rose.
 4. Or worn by slowly-rolling years,
Or broke by sickness in a day,
The fading glory disappears,
The short-lived beauties die away.
 5. Yet these, new rising from the tomb,
With lustre brighter far shall shine,
Revive with ever-during bloom,
Safe from diseases and decline.
 6. Let sickness blast, let death devour,
If heaven must recompense our pains:
Perish the grass, and fade the flower,
If firm the word of God remains.

HYMN 36. C. M.

1. Thee we adore, Eternal Name,
And humbly own to thee
How feeble is our mortal frame,
What dying worms we be.

2. Our wasting lives grow shorter still,
As days and months increase;
And every beating pulse we tell
Leaves but the number less.
 3. The year rolls round, and steals away
The breath that first it gave;
Whate'er we do, whate'er we be,
We're travelling to the grave.
 4. Dangers stand thick through all the ground,
To push us to the tomb;
And fierce diseases wait around
To hurry mortals home.
 5. Waken, O Lord, our drowsy sense
To walk this dangerous road;
And if our souls are hurried hence,
May they be found with God.

HYMN 37. C. P. M.

1. And am I only born to die?
And must I suddenly comply
With nature's stern decree?
What after death for me remains?
Celestial joys, or hellish pains,
To all eternity?

But how I may escape the death
That never, never dies:
How make mine own election sure;
And when I fail on earth, secure
A mansion in the skies.

 3. Jesus, vouchsafe a pitying ray;
Be thou my Guide, be thou my Way
To glorious happiness.
Ah, write the pardon on my heart,
And whensoever I hence depart,
Let me depart in peace.

HYMN. 38. C. M.

1. There is a land of pure delight,
Where saints immortal reign;
Infinite day excludes the night
And pleasures banish pain.

2. There everlasting spring abides,
And never-withering flowers:
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
This heavenly land from ours.

While Jordan rolled between.
 4. Could we but climb where Moses stood,

Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood,
Should fright us from the shore.

HYMN 39. L. M.

1. Jesus, my all, to heaven is gone,
He whom I fix my hopes upon :
His track I see, and I'll pursue
The narrow way, till him I view.
2. The way the holy prophets went,
The road that leads from banishment,
The King's highway of holiness
I'll go, for all his paths are peace.
3. This is the way I long have sought,
And mourned because I found it not ;
My grief a burden long has been,
Because I was not saved from sin.

I felt its weight and guilt the more ;

5. Lo, glad I come, and thou, blest Lamb,
Shalt take me to thee, whose I am ;
Nothing but sin have I to give,
Nothing but love shall I receive.
 6. Then will I tell to sinners round
What a dear Saviour I have found ;
I'll point to thy redeeming blood,
And say, “Behold the way to God.”

HYMN 40. L. M.

1. The great archangel's trump shall sound,
(While twice ten thousand thunders roar,)
Tear up the graves, and cleave the ground,
And make the greedy sea restore.
2. The greedy sea shall yield her dead,
The earth no more her slain conceal ;
Sinners shall lift their guilty head,
And shrink to see a yawning hell.
3. But we who now our Lord confess,
And faithful to the end endure,
Shall stand in Jesus' righteousness ;

Shall stand unmoved amid them all,
And smile to see a burning world;
 5. The earth and all the works therein
Dissolve, by raging flames destroyed;
While we survey the awful scene,
And mount above the fiery void.
 6. By faith we now transcend the skies,
And on that ruined world look down:
By love above all heights we rise,
And share the everlasting throne.

HYMN 41. L. M.

1. Jesus shall reign where'er the sun
Does his successive journeys run;
His kingdom spread from shore to shore,
Till moons shall wax and wane no more.
2. From north to south the princes meet

NUGUMOWIN 41. L. M.

1. Je-sus tu-o-ge-mä-we-we

3. To him shall endless prayer be made,
And endless praises crown his head ;
His name, like sweet perfume, shall rise
With every morning sacrifice ;
 4. People and realms of every tongue,
Dwell on his love with sweetest song,
And infant voices shall proclaim
Their early blessings on his name.

DOXOLOGY.

L. M.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow ;
Praise him, all creatures here below ;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host ;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

DISMISSION.

L. M.

1. Look down, great Father, from above ;
Give us some token of thy love.
To each thy blessing now impart,
As from thy house we now depart.
2. Let thy abounding love descend,
And in our hearts for ever dwell ;
Thy will and service be our choice.
And in thy word we all rejoice.

3. Mo-shuk tu-nun-do-tum-ou-a

INDEX.

A charge to keep I have-----	42
Alas, and did my Saviour bleed?-----	60
And am I only born to die?-----	80
Behold the Saviour of mankind-----	64
Blow ye the trumpet, blow-----	32
Come, and let us sweetly join-----	74
Come, Holy Ghost, our hearts inspire-----	8
Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly dove-----	10
Come, sinners, to the gospel feast-----	26
Come, thou fount of every blessing-----	38
Come, ye sinners, poor and needy-----	30
Father, I stretch my hands to thee-----	34
Father of all, in whom alone-----	22
From all that dwell below the skies-----	42
Giver and guardian of my sleep-----	46
God is in this and every place-----	66
How sad our state by nature is-----	68
Jesus, at whose supreme command-----	72
Jesus, lover of my soul-----	54
Jesus, my all, to heaven is gone-----	48
Jesus shall reign where'er the sun-----	88
Let all who truly bear-----	70
Look down, great Father, from above-----	90
My God, my life, my love-----	40
My Saviour's pierced side-----	44
Now from the altar of our hearts-----	48
O come, and dwell in me-----	12
Of him who did salvation bring-----	62
